

LIBRARY

OF

The Musical Society of London.

FOUNDED 1858.

No. 194

Deposited by

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

THE use of the Library shall be common to all the Fellows, Associates, and Lady Associates of the Society. Attendance shall be given by the Sub-Librarian, at the rooms of the Society, St. James' Hall (No. 28, Piccadilly), on MONDAYS and TUESDAYS in each week, from 11 till 1 o'clock, for the distribution of Books to the Members.

No Fellow or Associate shall be allowed the use of more than Two Works at any one time (except in the case of several works being bound in one volume), nor to retain them longer than a Fortnight.

Any Fellow or Associate wishing to keep the Work or Works longer than the allotted time, shall, at the expiration of the said Fortnight, apply to the Sub-Librarian, when permission will be granted for another Fortnight, unless in the event of the Book or Books being required by another Member.

Any Fellow or Associate detaining a Work longer than the allotted time, shall pay to the Sub-Librarian a fine of One Shilling for every week he may so detain it.

Any Fellow or Associate who may lose, damage, or deface a Work, shall be bound to pay a fine proportionate to the injury, or to replace the Work, at the discretion of the Library Committee.

Certain Works, decided upon by the Committee, shall not be lent from the Library, but only consulted at the Society's rooms. The Library Committee have the power of calling in all Books at a day's notice.

Any Fellow or Associate neglecting to comply with the above conditions, shall be suspended from the privileges of the Library, and reported at the Yearly General Meeting.

By a Resolution of the Council, it is provided that all Books and Music presented to the Society's Library, shall be returnable to the original owner in the event of the Society's dissolution.

All Donors shall have the use of the Library, subject to the same regulations as the Fellows and Associates.

(Signed)

C. E. HORSLEY,

WILLIAM CHAPPELL,

EDWARD F. RIMBAULT.

} *Library
Committee.*

St. James's Hall, 28, Piccadilly,

March, 1859.